Does God the Father Have a "Body of Flesh and Bone"? by Rich Deem Introduction. Mormons claim that God the Father has a "body of flesh and bones." 1 Nowhere is this statement made in the Bible, so they support this idea through the statement that God created man in His own image, 2 which requires that God look like a man. However, there are many problems with this interpretation.

Three main terms define the traditional Chinese views of the human body. The first, ti or "body," designates the physical frame as an ordered whole made of interdependent parts. The second, xing or "form," is especially complex; it should be understood in contrast to the idea of “formlessness” (wuxing), which is a property of the Dao. "Form," from this point of view, refers to the ...
