The wealth advisory business is great because it's a sticky business that earns more money over time as client balances grow. There are some wealth management teams out there who manage over $1 billion in combined client assets. That's a cool $10 - $20 million in fees a year! The actively managed mutual fund business is also lucrative given the high fees and similar leverage effect.

Why I Don't Like Variable Universal Life (VUL) Insurance. VUL is a sub-optimal investment which benefits the provider more than the customer. It might seem like a 2-for-1 deal. But it's really a 2-for-2 deal. You can do better by getting a term life insurance and investing the difference in a high-performing mutual fund or UITF.
